

OUTLINE OF DISCUSSION POINTS MEDICAL MARIJUANA ESTABLISHMENTS DISPENSARIES

This document accompanies the document titled “NRS – NAC Provision Chart.” It specifies the line numbers within that document that are applicable to the meeting and uniquely affecting dispensaries.

- Line 2
 - Subsection 3 requires a consulting physician; and
 - Requires proposed hours to be declared for the dispensary.
- Line 10
 - Paragraph 1(d) requires the Nevada license number of the consulting physician; and
 - Paragraph 1(e) is a redundant section requiring the proposed hours of the dispensary.
- Line 20--As it relates to the electronic verification system for non-resident cardholders, there is currently no model to follow.
- Line 37—Redundant language regarding the consulting physician and the hours of operation of a dispensary.
- Line 44—Redundant language regarding the hours of operation of a dispensary.
- Line 63
 - Requires a medical marijuana establishment to designate a person responsible for oversight of the establishment’s inventory control system;
 - Specifies from whom an establishment may acquire marijuana;
 - Requires establishment of an inventory control system;
 - Requires audits of the establishment’s inventory; and
 - Specifies the period of retention as well as requires documentation to be provided to the Division of Public and Behavioral Health upon request.
- Line 68
 - Paragraph 2(d) requires a report to the consulting physician of the dispensary if an agent experiences an adverse health condition; and

- Paragraph 3 prohibits an agent from having direct contact with any medical marijuana or equipment until the consulting physician determines the health condition will not adversely affect the products.
- Line 69
 - Specifies requirements of a dispensary as it relates to dispensing medical marijuana during its designated hours of operation;
 - Requires arrangements with a consulting physician; and
 - Requires posting of information related to the name of the consulting physician and the hours of operation.
- Line 70
 - Specifies the responsibilities of the dispensary as it relates to dispensing medical marijuana to patients.
- Line 71
 - Specifies the labeling responsibilities of the dispensary.
- Line 72
 - Identifies responsibilities concerning certain aspects of the physical environment and the equipment of the dispensary.
- Line 78—Is a redundant section related to the responsibilities of the dispensary as it relates to dispensing medical marijuana to patients.
- Line 85
 - Identifies the responsibilities of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health as it relates to notifying a dispensary if a patient designates a dispensary.
- Line 87—As it relates to setting forth the amount of usable marijuana a dispensary may dispense in any 14-day period, there is currently no model to follow.
- Line 89—Is a redundant section related to the responsibilities of the dispensary as it relates to dispensing medical marijuana to patients.
- Line 92
 - Identifies certain minimum training requirements for agents of dispensaries.